

REALaw Young Researchers' Forum

DIGITALISATION OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION IN EUROPE

5–6 SEPTEMBER 2024

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

Pázmány Péter Catholic University, St Pope John Paul II Hall

1088 Budapest, Szentkirályi utca 28.

14:00–16:00

AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

ANNALISA VOLPATO University of Padova

14:00–14:20 Océan Bian University of Strasbourg
Law and rise of AI: the use of AI in public decision making

14:20–14:40 Marco Fontana University of Pisa
Does the law of automated decision making change the law of public decision making?

14:40–15:00 Megi Bakiasi researcher
Salomé Habousha
Navigating the proportional path of automated decision making: To what extent does the New Pact on Migration and Asylum comply with the general principle of proportionality in EU administrative law?

15:00–16:00 DISCUSSION

16:00–16:30 COFFEE BREAK

5 September

16:30–18:30

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND E-GOVERNMENT

BALÁZS GERENCSÉR Pázmány Péter Catholic University

- 16:30–16:50 Maria Estela Lopes European University Institute
Participation in the AI era: Navigating citizens' participation in the deployment of artificial intelligence in the public sector
- 16:50–17:10 Elias Wirth (online) Sigmund Freud University
Fundamental rights limits of mandatory e-government
- 17:10–17:30 Kätliin Kelder Utrecht University
Exploring the right to a reasoned and contestable decision in times of increasing administrative algorithmic decision making
- 17:30–17:50 Lisette Mustert Utrecht University
Sarah Tas Maastrich University
Towards a patchwork of data protection and supervision in e-administration
- 17:50–18:30 DISCUSSION
- 19:30– CONFERENCE DINNER AT MUZIKUM BISZTRÓ
(BUDAPEST 1088, MÚZEUM UTCA 7.)

5 September

9:00–11:00

AI UPHEAVAL IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

ROBERT BÖTTNER

University of Erfurt

9:20–9:40

Ege Okakin Erbaş

Istanbul Gedik University

The notion of public power prerogatives in the age of digitalization: An update on administrative law?

9:40–10:00

Diego Rodríguez Cembellín

University of Oviedo

Regulatory sandboxes and their use in AI regulation

10:00–10:20

Luis Fernando Lima
de Oliveira

Paris Nanterre University

Clear as an algorithm: Legal aspects of transparency in public artificial intelligence systems

10:20–11:00

DISCUSSION

11:00–11:30

COFFEE BREAK

6 September

11:30–13:30

SECTORAL INSIGHTS AND CLOSING

ANDRÁS KOLTAY National Media and Infocommunications Authority

11:30–11:50 Alessandra Mattoscio Luiss Guido Carli University
The digital transition of social services

11:50–12:10 Michela Leggio University of Milano Statale
The role of AI in enforcement and controls in the food sector: Opportunities and challenges

12:10–12:30 Beatrice Baldini (online) Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies
Smart cities, 'biased' decisions, and risks of exclusion: What role for the public entity?

12:30–12:50 DISCUSSION

12:50–13:00 CLOSING

13:10 LUNCH AT VENUE

Authors' papers selected by the Scientific Committee for consideration in the Special Issue on Digitalization of Public Administration in Europe of the Review of European Administrative Law (REALaw) will be due on 15 January 2025 and edited by the Scientific Committee.

6 September