REALaw Young Researchers' Forum

DIGITALISATION OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION IN EUROPE

5–6 SEPTEMBER 2024 | BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

Pázmány Péter Catholic University, St Pope John Paul II Hall
1088 Budapest, Szentkirályi utca 28.

PÁZMÁNY
Pázmány Péter Catholic University
Faculty of Law and Political Sciences

Volume 17 | 2024

Review of European Administrative Law

NMHH
Nemzeti Média- és Hírközlési Hatóság

14:00–16:00

AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

ANNALISA VOLPATO

14:00–14:20   Océan Bian
Law and rise of AI: the use of AI in public decision making

14:20–14:40   Marco Fontana
Does the law of automated decision making change the law of public decision making?

14:40–15:00   Federico Damin
Using public procurement and public-private partnership to shape an automated decision-making environment

15:00–15:20   Meg Bakiasi
Navigating the proportional path of automated decision making: To what extent does the New Pact on Migration and Asylum comply with the general principle of proportionality in EU administrative law?

15:20–16:00   DISCUSSION

16:00–16:30   COFFEE BREAK

5 September

16:30–18:30

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND E-GOVERNMENT

BALÁZS GERENCSÉR

2

16:30–16:50 Maria Estela Lopes
Participation in the AI era: Navigating citizens' participation in the deployment of artificial intelligence in the public sector

16:50–17:10 Elias Wirth
Fundamental rights limits of mandatory e–government

17:10–17:30 Kätliin Kelder
Exploring the right to a reasoned and contestable decision in times of increasing administrative algorithmic decision making

17:30–17:50 Lisette Mustert
Towards a patchwork of data protection and supervision in e-administration

17:50–18:30 DISCUSSION

19:30– CONFERENCE DINNER AT MUZIKUM BISZTRÓ (BUDAPEST 1088, MÚZEUM UTCA 7.)

5 September

9:00–11:00

AI UPHEAVAL IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

ROBERT BÖTTNER

9:00–9:20   Ege Okakin Erbaş
The notion of public power prerogatives in the age of digitalization: An update on administrative law?

9:20–9:40   Diego Rodríguez Cembellín
Regulatory sandboxes and their use in AI regulation

9:40–10:00   Marianna Merler
Public administration and big data predictions: A possible duo?

10:00–10:20   Luis Fernando Lima de Oliveira
Clear as an algorithm: Legal aspects of transparency in public artificial intelligence systems

10:20–11:00   DISCUSSION

11:00–11:30   COFFEE BREAK

6 September

11:30–13:30

SECTORAL INSIGHTS AND CLOSING

ANDRÁS KOLTAY

11:30–11:50 Alessandra Mattoscio
The digital transition of social services

11:50–12:10 Michaela Leggio
The role of AI in enforcement and controls in the food sector: Opportunities and challenges

12:10–12:30 Beatrice Baldini
Smart cities, 'biased' decisions, and risks of exclusion: What role for the public entity?

12:30–12:50 CLOSING

12:50–13:00 DISCUSSION

13:30 LUNCH AT VENUE

Authors' papers selected by the Scientific Committee for consideration in the Special Issue on Digitalization of Public Administration in Europe of the Review of European Administrative Law (REALaw) will be due on 15 January 2025 and edited by the Scientific Committee.

6 September