

SYLLABUS

Semester: 2025/26/1

Subject name: Professional Terminology in the Practice of Law

Subject code: JONY507XX0

Name of the responsible organization: Foreign Language Department

Code of the responsible organization: JÁKNY

Name of the subject coordinator: Dr. Balogh Dorka

Subject requirement: Report (three-scale)

Weekly number of classes: 0/2/0

Weekly number of classes: 0/2/0

Purpose of the training:

The course targets students of law, helps them acquire the legal professional terminology of the target language

Contents of the subject:

The course targets students of law, helps them acquire the legal professional terminology of the target language and prepares them for the interpretation, translation and application of legal texts in the given language. It builds special legal vocabulary in a systematic way and develops the most essential language skills (speaking, writing, translation, reading comprehension and listening) through the discussion of different topics in the subject area, namely: legal systems, forms of state, legislation, public administration and local government systems, the role and the scope of authority of local governments.

Assessment and evaluation:

Marking by 3 scale grading system: excellent (5), good (3), fail (1)

Required reading:

Ormay-Pókay-Zelnik: English for Law Students Pécs, 2012

Krois-Lindner, Matt Firth: Introduction to International Legal English, Cambridge 2013