

Reference style, samples, homepage: Articles should be submitted in conformity with the Hungarian Yearbook style guide provided by Eleven International Publishing.

The Hungarian Yearbook style guide (as well as our case note guide, conference report guide and book review sample, and sample articles) is available at <http://www.hungarianyearbook.com>

Double-Blind Peer Review: All manuscripts (excluding book reviews and conference reports) submitted will be subject to double-blind peer review.

Date of Publication: The Editors aim to publish Vol. 9 (2021) in December 2021 at the latest.

About the Hungarian Yearbook: The Hungarian Yearbook of International Law and European Law is published by Eleven International Publishing (the Hague) in printed and e-book form. The objective of the Yearbook is to provide a forum for legal discussion on actual developments of international and European law, and to examine cases, new legislation, events and jurisprudence related to Hungary and Central-Eastern Europe, and Hungarian (Central-Eastern European) legislation from an international law and European law perspective.